

FOCUS ASIA
26-27 April 2006
09.00-17.30 daily

Location: Knuten Hall, Hotel Lundia,
Knut den Stores torg 2

26 April

Religious and Social Movements in East and South-East Asia

09:00-10:30

"Denying religion, reshaping religion? Assessing trends in the post-Aum religious world in Japan"
Ian Reader, Lancaster University, U.K.

11:00-12:30

"Religions, Secularization, and Revival in Contemporary China"
Graeme Lang, City University of Hong Kong

14:00-15:30

"Insular Southeast Asia and Radical Islam"
Kees van Dijk, KITLV/Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies

16:00-17:30

"Communism, Peasants and Buddhism: The Failure of 'Peasant Revolutions' in Thailand in Comparison to Cambodia"
Charles F. Keyes, University of Washington, U.S.A.

27 April

HIV/AIDS in East and South-East Asia

09:00-10:30

"Children impacted by AIDS in central China: their current situation and models of collaboration between government, NGOs and multinationals"
Chung To, Chi Heng Foundation, Hong Kong

11:00-12:30

"The AIDS Epidemic in Myanmar (Burma): An Update on the Problem and a Perspective on the Global Community's Role in Responding to It"
Rachel Safman, National University of Singapore

14:00-15:30

"Ethnicity, Social Change and HIV/AIDS in Northern Laos and Thailand"
Chris Lyttleton, Macquarie University, Australia

16:00-17:30

"Universal access to treatment against the HIV/AIDS epidemic in Cambodia: From political issues to controversial implementation"
Frédéric Bourdier, Institut de recherche pour le développement, France

FOCUS
ASIA
26-27 APRIL 2006

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies
www.ace.lu.se