

FOCUS ASIA

JAPAN AND THE TSUNAMI

TUESDAY 10 MAY 2011

VENUE: HOTEL LUNDIA (SAL KNUTEN)

- 10:00-10:15 Opening remarks: Mr. Leif Almö, Honorary Consul-General of Japan in Malmö
- 10:15-10:20 Introduction of speakers: Prof. Roger Greatrex, Director, Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies (Lund University)
- 10:20-11:00 Opening speech: Dr. Monica Lindberg Falk (Lund University):
Disasters and Resilience: Experiences from the Tsunami in Thailand
- 11:00-11:20 Coffee break
- 11:20-11:50 Dr. Ingemar Ottosson (Lund University):
Japan's Recurring Tragedies: Earthquakes and Tsunamis
- 11:50-12:20 Dr. Mayumi Saegusa (Lund University):
Social Aspects of the Great East Japan Earthquake
- 12:20-12:45 Discussion
- 12:45-14:00 Lunch
- 14:00-14:30 Dr. Monica Braw, EIJS, Stockholm:
Fukushima, the Nuclear Industry and Hiroshima
- 14:30-15:00 Prof. Marie Söderberg (Stockholm School of Economics):
Political and Economic Consequences of the Tsunami
- 15:00-15:30 Concluding discussion

The lectures are open to the public and entry is free of charge.

For more information please see: www.ace.lu.se

Organized by the Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies at Lund University

