

FOCUS ASIA

China's role in Southeast Asia

- 09.15-09.30 Welcome and Introduction
Astrid Norén-Nilsson, Lund University
- 09.30-10.30 Wagging the Dog: Cambodia's Frustrating Relationship with China
Andrew Mertha, Johns Hopkins University SAIS
- 10.30-10.45 Coffee break
- 10.45-11.45 China's "no-strings attached": Aiding the status quo in Cambodia
Kheang Un, Northern Illinois University
- 11.45-13.00 Lunch break
- 13.00-14.00 Expecting normative change in Southeast Asia, driven by the rise of China: A set of hypotheses exemplified and discussed with a focus on the 'New Malaysia'
Elsa Lafaye de Micheaux, Université de Rennes & Centre Asie du Sud-Est, Paris
- 14.00-15.00 Rent Capitalism and Shifting Plantations in the Mekong Borderlands: A Challenge of Chinese Economic Influence in Southeast Asia
Yos Santasombat, Chiang Mai University
- 15.00-15.30 Coffee break
- 15.30-16.30 The Myanmar Corridor
Bertil Lintner, Journalist and Author
- 16.30-17.00 Wrap-up panel discussion

When: 7 December, 2018

Where: Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies, Asia Library, Sölvegatan 18 B

For more information please see our website: www.ace.lu.se

LUND
UNIVERSITY